

A/Prof Kwah Li Khim is the is the Director of Programmes, Health and Social Sciences Cluster at SIT. She holds a part-time appointment with the Chief Allied Health Officer's Office at MOH, and is one of the leads of the Community Rehabilitation Transformation Workgroup.

Her current work focus on bridging the gap between research evidence and clinical practice in rehabilitation, and improving physical activity level after stroke.