

Viji Navamany is a physiotherapist with a Bachelor's degree in Physiotherapy from the University of Queensland. She is passionate about improving the quality of life for her patients, particularly those who have suffered from neurological conditions. Viji is pursuing a residency program in neurological physiotherapy and gained valuable experience in working with these patients. She is deeply committed to empowering individuals to take control of their health through education and preventative measures.